

What's been happening in Toowoomba!!

'Introduction to Judaism' by Shantelle Shore on the 26 October at Pure Land.

The Food and Faith Forum organized by the USQ Multi-Faith Services on the 16 October had speakers from the Christian, Jewish, Muslim, Baha'i and Buddhist faiths.

Celebrating World Teachers' Day at the Baha'i Centre on the 27 October.

A group of women from Mercy Family Services hosted a picnic lunch in the Botanic Gardens on 2 October to welcome and extend friendship to Afghani women who have recently arrived in Toowoomba. Kudos to our women!

Members of the Brisbane Fiji Senior Citizens Association of Queensland visited Pure Land on the 28 September.

A multicultural concert with tea ('Tea for Peace') to coincide with the Week of Prayer for World Peace (13-20 October) was held at the Anglican Parish of St. Luke on 20 October.
